Eurasian Journal for Entrepreneurial, Pedagogical and Interregional Studies (EJEPIS) is an international journal, published twice a year by the e-TC / Roepke Haus, Philipps-University Marburg, Universitaetsstr. 25, 35037 Marburg, Germany. It specializes in thematic diaspora, transnational & international affairs, Kantian democratic peace, Kantian polemology & peace economics, Entrepreneurial visionary transformation process and selected trending of topical issues in Asia Pacific, Eurasia or in Near-, Middle- & Far East; intended to communicate original researchers and current issues on the relevant critical universal subjects. EJEPIS welcomes articles, essays and book reviews from writers, researchers and scholars of the related disciplines or universal discourses in transdisciplinary approach.

* All articles or discourses published in EJEPIS will be easily searchable on Google or Google Scholar, and other search engines and some of them will be protected under the Creative Commons Attribution license. The e-TC/Marburg University offers a reprint service for those who require professionally produced copies of a licensed-article. The views, opinions, findings, conclusions and recommendations set forth in any Journal article are solely those of the authors of those articles and do not necessarily reflect the views, policy or position of the Journal, its Publisher, its editorial staff or any affiliated Societies and should not be attributed to any of them.

Manuscripts should be submitted with the understanding that they have neither been published, nor are under consideration for publication elsewhere. Manuscripts submission should include a title, an abstract (250 words maximum), keywords and a brief personal biography. It is incumbent upon the submitting author to ensure the accuracy and inclusion of all contributing authors' names and affiliations upon original submission of the paper. Manuscripts are typically reviewed by 2 or more peer reviewers in the field of study and are expected to meet the standards of academic and scientific excellence. The initial review process usually takes between 2-8 weeks; revisions require additional time. The final decision to accept or reject a paper is made by the Editor-in-Chief after the review process is complete. It is usually preferable to send editable text prepared in Microsoft Word and double-spaced.

Manuscripts could be submitted online, e.g. via: <http://ejipis.org/>
